Contents

Introduction

G. J.F. Smets, Chairman

- 1 Symposium on Endoscopy
- 3 Human Performance in Minimally Invasive Surgery
J.M. Flach, J.G. Holden, C.O. Dominguez, D. McKellar and M. Dunn
- 7 Man-Machine Aspects of Minimally Invasive Surgery
C.A. Grimbergen
- 11 Direct Perception in Endoscopy
F.A. Voorhorst and C.J. Overbeeke
- 15 Workshop
- 17 Visual Control of Balance during Walking: Model and Data
B.G. Bardy, W.H. Warren and B.A. Kay
- 21 How the Arm Can Influence What We See
E. Brenner, J.B.J. Smeets and W.J.M. van Damme
- 25 Tool Use Learning: What does Expertise Mean? The Case of Stone Knapping in India
B. Bril, V. Roux and G. Dietrich
- 29 Putative Neurological Mechanisms in Catching: A Dual Task Approach
R. Corban and F. Eves
- 33 Contributions of Peripheral and Central Vision to Stride Length Regulation in Long Jumping
F. Eves, M. Gillham, J. Challis, R. Shepherd, F-X. Li
- 37 Stimulus Analysis Times Measured from Saccadic Responses
I.Th.C. Hooge, J.J. Boessenkool and C.J. Erkelens
- 41 Smart Mechanism for Time To Contact Detection
B. Kappé and W.A. van de Grind
- 45 Differences between Haptic and Visual Judgements of Curvature
A.M.L. Kappers, J.J. Koenderink and G. Oudenaarden
- 49 Postural Control of Equilibrium in the First Year of Learning to Walk
A. Ledebt and B. Bril
- 53 Effect of Ball Mass and Ball Momentum in Interceptive Task
F-X. Li
- 57 Direct Perceptual Bases for Intuitive Estimates of Correlations
J. Meyer
- 61 Toward a Dynamical Account of Trajectory Formation: Emergent 1D and 2D Trajectories
D. Mottet and R.J. Bootsma
- 65 Effects of Runway Outline and Ground Texture on the Perception of Time-to-Contact in Simulated Landings
J.M. Pleijsant, M. Mulder, J.C. van der Vaart and P.C.W. Wieringen
- 69 The Influence of Stimulus Length on Static Haptic Curvature Discrimination
S.C. Pont, A.M.L. Kappers and J.J. Koenderink
- 73 Inconstancy of Observer-Movement, a Perceptual Tool?
H.J.G. de Poot
- 77 The Changing-Loudness Aftereffect and Dynamic Spatial Perception
A.H. Reinhardt-Rutland
